

Describing Curves

Pair up. One person describes a function. The other person draws the function on their whiteboard using only the descriptions their partner gives them i.e. they cannot look at this page.

